

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

LAKE COUNTY CENTENARIANS.

BY P. W. BALL,

Historical Secretary of the Old Settler and Historical Association of Lake County.

AMONG our early settlers, our true pioneers, there were two who lived more than one hundred years. One of these was Peter Surprise, born of French parentage in a province of Lower Canada, February 24, 1794. In 1834 or 1835 (this date is not quite certain), following a party of French neighbors who settled near the present Momence, in Illinois, he made his settlement in what became Lake county. He was naturalized August 10, 1837, by Solon Robinson, then county clerk, and died in this county August 27, 1903, having lived 109 years and six months, or having lived through nearly seven years of the eighteenth, through all of the wonderful nineteenth century, and through two full years of the twentieth century. He had in all fourteen children, three born in Canada. Seven of these were living at the time of their father's death. There were also living twenty-two grandchildren and forty great-grandchildren.

Our other centenarian was Mrs. Valona Cutler, a daughter of Richard Church, who came to what became known as Prairie West in 1836, having a family of six sons and four daughters. Mrs. Cutler was born in 1805, the day and month not on our record. She was the mother of six children. About 1855 the Cutler family left Lake county. They became citizens of Illinois, where, in February, 1906, Mrs. Cutler died, having lived more than one hundred years. Although not residing many years in the county, she was for a time an active, prominent and influential Lake county pioneer, and so we claim her as one of our centenarians.